

HORST 2018 - CAMPING REGULATIONS

Core principles: You can't bring everything to the campsite; you need a valid ticket or wristband to enter the campsite; please always follow instructions by staff and security; mind your surroundings and fellow festival visitors. Most of all, enjoy your stay!

- Upon entering the campsite, you agree to conform to the rules below. The rules are available on this website and at the campsite entrance.
- In any case but especially in case of fire, eviction or other calamities, you are to follow all instructions of festival staff and security personnel.
- If these rules allow room for interpretation, final decisions will be made by members of staff, security or local police.
- Any attempt to circumvent these house rules can be interpreted as breaking them.
- Access to the campground is only granted with valid and appropriate sign of accreditation.
- All members of staff and security are recognizable by their special wristbands and/or clothing.
- There is an absolute zero-tolerance policy in regard to the possession, sale, purchase or use of harddrugs at the festival site and the campsite.
- Please set up your tent in an orderly manner. This way everybody can have an optimal camping experience. Camping staff or fellow festival visitors might ask you to move your tent a bit.
- Leave no trace! There are plenty of garbage bins to deposit your garbage. All tents left at the festival site after Monday 12:00 (midday) will be removed. Other items will be at a Lost & Found desk and a list of these items will be communicated through our channels ASAP after the festival.

The following is not allowed at the campsite:

- Party tents
- Any kind of weapon (knives included, except table knives)
- Tents bigger than 2m x 2m per person (2 person tent = 4m x 4m etc)
- Hard- or softdrugs
- Cars, caravans or bikes (both bike and car parking are available nearby)
- Sound systems
- Generators
- Open fire, BBQs, torches, braziers, gas-cylinders or other fire hazards
- Hard (strong) liquor
- Glass (no bottles!)
- Food or drinks destined for sale
- (Semi-professional) cameras (these include GoPro)
- Of course you may bring your own food and drinks, but only for personal use. In regard to drinks, we must draw a line somewhere, so we'll allow a maximum of 12 beer/soft-drink cans (cans only, no bottles) and one PET-bottle per visitor.
